If the university later discovers that false statements have been made or material information withheld or omitted, it reserves the right to withdraw an offer of admission or to terminate registration.*

Declaration

I am applying for admission to Hellenic American University's graduate programs, offered in Athens, Greece through the Hellenic American College. I understand that the decision to admit rests with the University. If admitted, I agree to abide by the rules and regulations of the Hellenic American University and to pay all tuition, fees, and expenses incurred by me there. I also understand that my personal information and papers (including amendments) are stored as part of my student record electronically on a database and manually. All personal information is treated strictly according to the Hellenic American University Student Records Privacy Policy, as set forth in the University catalog. This policy requires that all information be accurate, obtained fairly, and not divulged to people without permission or authority. It gives me the right to check the information held and to correct it if necessary. I am aware of the conditions of admission and the University's expectations. I confirm that to the best of my knowledge, the information contained in my application is complete and accurate.

Data Privacy

Hellenic American College is collecting and will use the personal information you provide in this form in order to:

1. process your application for admission to the Hellenic American University graduate program and enroll you as a student in the University if you are admitted and decide to enroll;
2. provide you with information on events, activities and services that Hellenic American College offers or organizes, either independently or in cooperation with other organizations, under the condition that you provide your prior consent.

The information we have requested in this form will be maintained in digital and physical form and used only for the purposes described above.

Your personal data will be sent to Hellenic American University in the United States so that it can create your student application record and, should you be accepted and decide to enroll, to officially admit you as a student.

The Hellenic American College will keep your personal information only for as long as it has legal, regulatory or contractual responsibilities to maintain this information.

You have the right to access the personal information we maintain on you and to request a copy of this information; to correct inconsistent or inaccurate and complete any missing data; to delete or to restrict the processing of this data for matters explicitly defined by law; to receive the personal data concerning you in a structured, commonly used and machine-readable format; and to object to the processing of personal data for matters explicitly defined by law or withdraw his/her consent.

You can exercise these rights by submitting a relevant written request to Hellenic American College, Massalias 22, dataprivacy@haec.gr, to which Hellenic American College must answer within one month from its receipt. This deadline may be extended for two additional months if the complexity of your request or the number of requests in general require so. If you believe that Hellenic American College has infringed your data privacy rights, you have the right to file a complaint with the Hellenic Data Protection Authority (www.dpa.gr).

If you would like more information on Hellenic American College's data protection and privacy policy, please contact us at dataprivacy@haec.gr or +30 210 368 0950.

- I hereby give my consent to Hellenic American College to process my data as described above (para. 2).
